

Welcome to FCTE 2012!

Join together with fellow first-call pastors, gifted faculty, Bishops Bill Rindy and Larry Wohlrabe, Synod staff, and many other folks working with us in the mission field.

When is FCTE?

FCTE is January 13-15 2012. Please note that this includes Sunday, the 15th. This time will not count against your continuing education or your vacation time. We will be working with you and your congregation to provide worship leadership where necessary. We suggest that you ask ministry partners such as campus ministry, camping ministry, LSS, etc. to preach and lead worship while you are at this event. Stipends are available for congregations for whom this may be a hardship.

Where is FCTE?

FCTE will be held on the campus of Concordia College and Trinity Lutheran Church in Moorhead MN. Housing will be provided at the Courtyard Marriott, 1080 South 28th Avenue, Moorhead, Minnesota.

What will FCTE cost?

Registration covers event costs, plus lunch and supper on Friday and Saturday.

$150.00 (commuter or double occupancy)

$225.00 (single occupancy – first come, first serve, limited rooms)

Fabric of Mutual Ministry

FCTE is brought to you by the Fabric of Mutual Ministry (FMM). FMM is a ministry partnership between the Eastern North Dakota and Northwestern Minnesota Synods of the ELCA, Concordia College (Moorhead, MN), Luther Seminary (St. Paul, MN), Trinity Lutheran Church (Moorhead, MN), and with support from the Lilly Endowment Transition into Ministry program.

The purpose of the FMM Transition into Ministry program is to ensure a successful transition into ministry for pastors in their first three years of rostered ministry, by providing the support necessary for the development of healthy pastoral practices and leadership skills.

Through colleague groups, continuing education, and FCTE we hope to encourage growth in areas of:

- ❖ Spiritual Practices
- ❖ Competence in Ministry
- ❖ Healthy Habits
- ❖ Self-awareness
