

The Resource Center

Eastern North Dakota
Synod, ELCA
1703 32nd Avenue South
Fargo, ND 58103
www.eandsynod.org
701.232.3381
juliea@eandsynod.org

Resources for YOU and YOUR Congregation

- All resources are available for loan to individuals and to congregations
- Call, visit, or email the Resource Center at the EaND Synod office
- An online catalog is available at www.eandsynod.org (“Search the Catalog” under the Resource Center)
- Available to you are web links, online collections, media and print resources, curricula and more for all areas of congregational life

Open for Exploration!

STEWARDSHIP . . . a taste of the best

- Find a thoughtful source for stewardship ideas at www.stewardshipoflife.org Former Eastern North Dakota Synod pastor, Sharron Lucas (Sheyenne-Oberon Area Ministry) writes a weekly column reflecting on lectionary texts on this site, part of the Stewardship of Life Institute at the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Gettysburg.
- Pastor John Golv, interim at Peace Lutheran Church in Fargo, is author of Our Stewardship: Managing Our Assets from the Congregational Leader Series. It’s among the most accessible and engaging stewardship resources we have! (PR732)
- Mark Allan Powell’s Giving to God: The Bible’s Good News about Living a Generous Life is among the most readable resources on comprehensive stewardship ministry...highly recommended! (B3512)
- If you’ve not gone to www.elca.org/stewardship you’re missing one of the best sections of the ELCA website. It’s filled with helpful and current stewardship information. (See the seven-part curriculum described below!)
- Not Your Parents’ Offering Plate by J. Cliff Christopher will be reviewed in the May newsletter. This new vision for financial stewardship is recommended by Pr. Jerry Protector, Peace Lutheran in Fargo. (B3716)
- NIV Stewardship Study Bible Go to www.luthersem.edu/stewardship for a helpful summary of this new stewardship resource from Zondervan. From our own Pr. Kari Bahe: “The best resource for stewardship is the Bible.” (B3717)
- Herb Miller’s New Consecration Sunday is a revised stewardship program kit focusing on a biblical and spiritual theology of the need to give. Available for loan.
- A number of congregations have appreciated using Ask, Thank, Tell by Charles Lane. It’s a straightforward, easy-to-read stewardship guide. “The section on ‘Creating a Culture of Thanksgiving’ is [excellent].” (B3211)
- The How’s and Why’s of Money Leadership is a free, seven-part curriculum for “leaders who want to plumb the depths of their congregation’s financial soul.” It deals with attitudes about money, congregational finances, leadership, money and theology and more. Especially for congregations who find themselves stuck and looking for direction, this resource was developed cooperatively by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, the Alban Institute and the Lilly Endowment. Available at www.elca.org/stewardship

Open for Exploration!

The Resource Center

Eastern North Dakota Synod, ELCA

1703 32nd Avenue South Fargo, ND 58103

www.eandsynod.org 701.232.3381 juliea@eandsynod.org

Resources for YOU and YOUR Congregation

- All resources are available for loan to individuals and to congregations
- Call, visit, or email the Resource Center at the EaND Synod office
- An online catalog is available at www.eandsynod.org (“Search the Catalog” under the Resource Center)
- Available to you are web links, online collections, media and print resources, curricula and more for all areas of congregational life

STEWARDSHIP . . . a taste of the best

- Find a thoughtful source for stewardship ideas at www.stewardshipoflife.org Former Eastern North Dakota Synod pastor, Sharron Lucas (Sheyenne-Oberon Area Ministry) writes a weekly column reflecting on lectionary texts on this site, part of the Stewardship of Life Institute at the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Gettysburg.
- Pastor John Golv, interim at Peace Lutheran Church in Fargo, is author of Our Stewardship: Managing Our Assets from the Congregational Leader Series. It’s among the most accessible and engaging stewardship resources we have! (PR732)
- Mark Allan Powell’s Giving to God: The Bible’s Good News about Living a Generous Life is among the most readable resources on comprehensive stewardship ministry...highly recommended! (B3512)
- If you’ve not gone to www.elca.org/stewardship you’re missing one of the best sections of the ELCA website. It’s filled with helpful and current stewardship information. (See the seven-part curriculum described below!)
- Not Your Parents’ Offering Plate by J. Cliff Christopher will be reviewed in the May newsletter. This new vision for financial stewardship is recommended by Pr. Jerry Protector, Peace Lutheran in Fargo. (B3716)
- NIV Stewardship Study Bible Go to www.luthersem.edu/stewardship for a helpful summary of this new stewardship resource from Zondervan. From our own Pr. Kari Bahe: “The best resource for stewardship is the Bible.” (B3717)
- Herb Miller’s New Consecration Sunday is a revised stewardship program kit focusing on a biblical and spiritual theology of the need to give. Available for loan.
- A number of congregations have appreciated using Ask, Thank, Tell by Charles Lane. It’s a straightforward, easy to read stewardship guide. “The section on ‘Creating a Culture of Thanksgiving’ is [excellent].” (B3211)
- The How’s and Why’s of Money Leadership is a free, seven-part curriculum for “leaders who want to plumb the depths of their congregation’s financial soul.” It deals with attitudes about money, congregational finances, leadership, money and theology and more. Especially for congregations who find themselves stuck and looking for direction, this resource was developed cooperatively by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, the Alban Institute and the Lilly Endowment. Available at www.elca.org/stewardship